SUMMARY STATEMENT: The United States Department of Justice has allocated $57,250 to the City of Wasilla under the Edward Byrne Memorial Justice Assistance Grant (JAG) program. The grant application process requires approval from the City Council for the City to participate in the program. This grant will allow for the acquisition of equipment to store and process digital evidence as well as fund personnel costs for civilian support for records and evidence.

RECOMMENDED ACTION: Adopt Resolution Serial No. 09-12 that authorizes the Chief of Police to apply for an Edward Byrne Memorial JAG in the amount of $57,250 for police department personnel services and equipment.
