Summary Statement: This ordinance is proposed to amend the FY2020 budget by appropriating $5,031 from the Curtis D. Menard Sport Complex fund, fund balance for storage building capital improvements. In 2019, the city completed the construction of a 2,400 square foot storage building for the Menard Center. This appropriation when added to the current balance provides $11,746 in funding that can be applied to the project this fiscal year. This work includes improvements to the storage building's fenced-in storage yard and additional exterior lighting.

Proposed Action: Introduce and set the ordinance for public hearing.
