SUMMARY STATEMENT: This agreement covers vacant leased space in the Meta Rose Square. The space includes a mini-nook measuring approximately forty-two (42) square feet and use of the hallway space immediately outside the unit (i.e. a narrow display shelf). This space was previously occupied by Matanuska Mailboxes who used it primarily as a drop station with no open hours of operation. An alternate arrangement was pursued with Matanuska Mailboxes (refer to Resolution Serial No. 11-23) in an effort to seek a merchant for this space who would have set open hours so as to add to the vitality and foot traffic in the Square.

In response to the advertising for this unit, the City received interest from several parties in the following order: Alaskan designed/sewn children's clothing, tattoo and piercings, computer repair, and the Jonesers (Alaskan-made/promoted novelties).

The tattoo and piercings business was not considered a good fit by the City and was communicated to the owner, who seemed understanding to the issue.

The Alaskan designed/sewn children's clothing was considered a good fit by the City because of its unique product and that it has been operating as a home business – outside the City of Wasilla. Recognizing that a current merchant already in the Square sells, high-end, girls' clothing for infants to young girls, city staff solicited input from the owner who expressed huge concern about potential lost sales because of competing products. The owner indicated clearly that they were not in support of the City renting the space to this potential merchant.

With regard to the computer repair service, questions arise as to how much traffic would be gained by adding a company of this nature. The Square operates primarily as retail on the main floor and the City was hopeful that this space would provide a venue for additional attractive displays.

The Alaskan-made novelties (the Jonesers) sells Alaskan-made honeys, teas, meat rubs, roasted coffees, diamond willow, small painted gold pans, gift packages with soy products and chocolates, etc. This business does not have a current storefront and operates through special events such as the Wednesday Farmer's Market. Recognizing that a current merchant carries similar products, inquiry was made with the owner who expressed great concern about potential lost sales because of competing products. The owner indicated clearly that they were not in support of the City renting the space to this potential merchant. Further conversation with the owner highlighted that tea and coffee is one of their higher volume products but that honey is sold only on occasion. Seasonings and salsas would also be overlapping products.

Appreciating the concerns of the business owners, the City continued to advertise the space through June 30, 2011 in an effort to seek a merchant that had no overlapping products. No further inquiries were received on the vacant unit and thus a lease was pursued with the Jonesers for the following reasons:

- The overlapping products are distinctively different in that the Jonesers' products target the local, Alaskan-made market.
- The Jonesers agreed to remove a part of their product lines (coffee and salsa) to minimize the amount of overlapping/competing products.
- The Jonesers are known to having an established customer base from their event-sales within the community which is anticipated to increase traffic in the Square.
- The space covered under this lease is only forty-two (42) square feet making it difficult to have an integral financial impact on any of the established businesses in the Square.
- While current merchants are always considered when evaluating new leases, there is a fiduciary responsibility to extend income when the opportunity exists. It is not responsible to let this space remain idle when the City has, in fact, received interest in renting the space.
- Lease defines specific allowable product sales under the section 4.01 Use of Premise.

By executing this lease agreement, the City will secure $2,100 in rental income, primarily all in FY 2012 and possibly be the catalyst for another successful business in our community.

STAFF RECOMMENDATION: Approve the adoption of Resolution 11-30.

If this Lease be assigned or if the Space Leased or any part thereof be occupied by anybody other than Tenant, Landlord may collect rent from the assignee or occupant, and apply the net amount collected to the rent herein reserved, but no such assignment, underletting, occupancy or collection shall be deemed a waiver of this provision or the acceptance of the assignee, undertenant or occupant as Tenant, or as a release of Tenant from the further performance herein. If the Landlord elects to restore the Space Leased as provided in this paragraph, Landlord shall not be required to restore alterations made by Tenant, Tenant's improvements, Tenant's trade fixtures, equipment and Tenant's personal property, including without limitation any panels, decoration, office fixtures, railing, ceiling, floor covering, partitions and the like, such excluded items being the sole responsibility of Tenant to restore. However, if the building or Lease Space is found to be a danger the structure may be demolished immediately without notice at the Landlord's convenience.

- b) In the event of damage to or destruction of the Space Leased, unless the Landlord shall have repaired such damage within ninety (90) days, or has commenced repairing within ninety (90) days and is proceeding with diligence and continuity, Tenant may with written notice terminate this lease on the date specified in such notice, as if the date and been originally fixed as the expiration date of the term herein leased, provided such early termination date be not later than one hundred fifty (150) days after the event of damage or destruction contemplated herein.
